Detailed Analysis

The bill creates the “Dolly Parton’s Imagination Library” license plate, which is available to all Ohio motorists, and requires a person to pay an additional $35 when the plate is issued and renewed. A portion of that fee is retained by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV), with the remainder distributed to Dolly Parton’s Imagination Library of Ohio. The table below shows the distribution of that amount.

“Dolly Parton’s Imagination Library” License Plate
BMV Fee	Required Contribution	Contribution Recipient	Statutory Use of Contribution
$10	$25	Dolly Parton’s Imagination Library of Ohio	Paying for operational costs of the library, including the distribution of books

Specialty license plates are produced by the BMV via a digital print-on-demand process at a cost of $6.25 for a single license plate, or $7.60 for a pair.¹ These costs will be offset by the collection of the $10 BMV administrative fee which is paid at the initial issuance of the license plate and for each subsequent renewal and credited to the Public Safety – Highway Purposes Fund (Fund 5TM0), which is used in part to pay the BMV’s expenses related to titling motor vehicles, licensing drivers, and registering motor vehicles.

The “Dolly Parton’s Imagination Library” license plate is exempt from existing law’s implementation procedure, meaning that the Registrar of Motor Vehicles is required to issue the license plate regardless of whether written statements from at least 150 people indicating their intent to apply for and obtain the license plate have been received.²

The BMV will incur production costs of at least $6.25 for each “Dolly Parton’s Imagination Library” license plate issued, which will be offset by the collection of the $10 BMV fee. The amount generated for Dolly Parton’s Imagination Library of Ohio, will total $25 for each license plate issued. The costs incurred by the BMV and the amount generated for Dolly Parton’s Imagination Library of Ohio will vary annually and depend on the number of such license plates that are issued or renewed.
