CONTENT AND OPERATION

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program debit cards

The bill establishes two requirements for debit cards used to access Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits. SNAP is a federal program administered by the states to help low-income households purchase food products from authorized food merchants. It may be more popularly known by its former name: Food Stamps.

The bill's first requirement is that the front of a SNAP debit card include a color photograph of at least one adult member of the household for which the debit card is issued, unless the household (1) does not include any adults or (2) includes adults but they are 60 years of age or older, blind, disabled, or victims of domestic violence or they have religious objections to being photographed. An exempt adult is nonetheless permitted to have a color photograph of the adult included on the front of a SNAP debit card. The Registrar of Motor Vehicles, or an employee or contractor of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, may disclose an individual's photograph or digital image to the Department of Job and Family Services for the purpose of the bill's first requirement.

The second requirement is that the back of a SNAP debit card include a telephone number that can be called to report suspected SNAP fraud and the address of a website where suspected fraud can be reported.<sup>1</sup>

All new SNAP debit cards must comply with the requirements beginning six months after the bill's effective date. Not later than six months after that, each SNAP debit card issued before the date that the requirements for new SNAP debit cards take effect must be replaced with a debit card that complies with the requirements if the household for which the debit card was issued continues to participate in SNAP.

The bill authorizes the Department of Job and Family Services to adopt rules for the efficient administration of the requirements. The rules are to be adopted in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (R.C. Chapter 119.).

The federal Food and Nutrition Act of 2008 authorizes states to require that SNAP debit cards include a photograph of one or more members of a household. However, states that do so must establish procedures to ensure that any other appropriate member of the household or authorized representative may use the card.<sup>2</sup>
