CONTENT AND OPERATION

Paulding County Municipal Court

Creation, judge, jurisdiction, and operation

Under the current County Courts Law, the Paulding County County Court has one part-time judge most recently elected in 2012.¹

The bill abolishes the Paulding County County Court and creates the Paulding County Municipal Court to be established in Paulding beginning January 1, 2020. In the Paulding County Municipal Court, one full-time judge will be elected in 2019.²

Under the bill, beginning January 1, 2020, the Paulding County Municipal Court has jurisdiction within Paulding County and is included within the definition of "county-operated municipal court." In the Paulding County Municipal Court, the judge will be nominated only by petition that must be signed by at least 50 electors of the territory of the Court and conform to the provisions of law pertaining to the nomination of municipal court judges.³

Criminal prosecutions

Under the bill, the Paulding County Prosecuting Attorney must prosecute in the Paulding County Municipal Court all violations of state law arising in Paulding County, and may enter into an agreement with any municipal corporation in the county pursuant to which the Prosecuting Attorney prosecutes all cases brought before the Paulding County Municipal Court for violations of the ordinances of the municipal corporation or for criminal offenses other than violations of state law occurring within the municipal corporation. For prosecuting these cases under such an agreement, the Prosecuting Attorney and the municipal corporation may agree upon a fee to be paid by the municipal corporation, which fee must be paid into the Paulding County Treasury, to be used to cover the expenses of the Office of the Prosecuting Attorney.⁴

COMMENT

The bill was amended in House Criminal Justice Committee to remove provisions designating the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Paulding County as the Clerk of Paulding County Municipal Court. A provision remains in the bill that exempts the Clerk of Paulding County Municipal Court from continuing law on group health care coverage for clerks, deputy clerks, and their spouses and dependents if health care coverage is provided to the Clerk by virtue of the Clerk's employment as the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Paulding County.⁸ A corrective amendment is necessary to remove R.C. 1901.312 from the bill, as it could cause confusion as to the proper source of health care coverage for the Clerk of Paulding County Municipal Court.
