- Creates a fund for the Commission and allows the Commission to solicit grants, gifts, and donations.
- Specifies that the Commission ceases to exist on December 31, 2020.

DETAILED ANALYSIS

Women's Suffrage Centennial Commission

The act creates the Women's Suffrage Centennial Commission, which must plan and carry out events and activities throughout Ohio during 2019 and 2020 in recognition of the 100th anniversaries of the following events:

- Congress's proposal of the Nineteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which guarantees women the right to vote, on June 4, 1919;
- The Ohio General Assembly's ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment on June 16, 1919; and

- The 36th state ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment by the Tennessee General Assembly on August 18, 1920, which approved the amendment.

The Commission's events and activities must honor the women's suffrage movement and must raise awareness of, and educate the public about, the importance and historical significance of the Nineteenth Amendment.<sup>1</sup>

Membership

The Commission consists of the following members:

- The Secretary of State or the Secretary's designee, who must serve as the Commission's chairperson;
- Two members of the Senate appointed by the Senate President, who must not be members of the same political party;
- Two members of the House appointed by the Speaker, who must not be members of the same political party;
- One member of the Ohio Republican Party appointed by the chairperson of the Party;
- One member of the Ohio Democratic Party appointed by the chairperson of the Party;
- Any additional members appointed by the Secretary of State in order to assist the Commission in fulfilling its duties.

The members' terms of office end on December 31, 2020, except that a member of the General Assembly appointed to the Commission is a Commission member only so long as the member remains in office. Vacancies on the Commission must be filled in the same manner as the original appointment.

The act requires Commission members to serve without compensation or reimbursement for expenses. The Secretary must provide any necessary equipment and facilities and assign any necessary professional, technical, or clerical employees of the Secretary to assist the Commission in fulfilling its duties.<sup>2</sup>

Fund

The act creates the Women's Suffrage Centennial Commission Fund in the state treasury for the Commission to use in carrying out its duties. The fund consists of any moneys appropriated or donated to it and any interest earned on the moneys in the fund. The Commission may solicit and accept grants, gifts, or donations from any lawful source and must deposit them in the Fund.<sup>3</sup>
