Bill Analysis

Version: As Introduced

Primary Sponsor: Sen. Brenner

Yosef Schiff, Attorney

SUMMARY

- Permits a registered mortgage lender, servicer, or broker, or an entity exempted from registration, to allow a mortgage loan originator or any other person associated with the registrant or entity to work remotely if certain conditions are met.

DETAILED ANALYSIS

The bill permits a registered mortgage lender, servicer, or broker, or an entity exempted from registration, to allow a mortgage loan originator or any other person associated with the registrant or entity to transact business on behalf of the registrant or entity from a location other than the registrant's or entity's principal office or a branch office if all of the following apply:

- The registrant or entity has a written policy governing supervision of the mortgage loan originator or other associated person while the originator or person transacts business on behalf of the registrant or entity from the other location.
- Access to the registrant's or entity's platform and customer information is in accordance with the registrant's or entity's written information security plan.
- The originator or other person does not interact with a customer at the originator's or person's residence, unless the residence is the registrant's or entity's principal office or a branch office.
- Physical records are not maintained at the location from which the originator or other associated person is transacting business on behalf of the registrant or entity.<sup>1</sup>

Under continuing law, a registrant or entity exempt from registration must, through its operations manager or otherwise, supervise the mortgage loan originator or other person, as well as establish procedures to avoid violations of the Residential Mortgage Loan Law by the originator or other person.

A mortgage loan originator is an individual who, for compensation or gain, or in the expectation of compensation or gain, does any of the following in relation to a residential mortgage loan:

- Takes a loan application;
- Assists or offers to assist a buyer in obtaining or applying to obtain a loan by, among other things, advising on loan terms;
- Offers or negotiates terms of a loan;
- Issues or offers to issue a commitment for a loan to a buyer.<sup>2</sup>
