Territorial jurisdiction

The bill provides that beginning January 1, 2024, the Fulton County Municipal Court has jurisdiction within Fulton County.<sup>7</sup>

Branch office

The bill requires the Fulton County Municipal Court to establish a branch office in the municipal corporation of Swanton and to appoint a special deputy clerk to administer the branch office on a full-time basis. The special deputy clerk must take the oath of office, perform the duties appertaining to the office of the clerk of court as the court prescribes, and receive such compensation payable in either biweekly installments or semimonthly installments, as determined by the payroll administrator, and payable out of the treasury of the county in which the court is located which is Fulton County.<sup>8</sup>

Court sitting outside municipal corporation

The bill requires the judge of the Fulton County Municipal Court to sit within each of the municipal corporations of Wauseon and Swanton on a weekly basis. Cases that arise within Wauseon and within Chesterfield, Clinton, Dover, Franklin, German, and Gorham townships in Fulton County must be filed in the office of the clerk of the court located in Wauseon. Cases that arise in Swanton and within Amboy, Fulton, Pike, Swan Creek, Royalton, and York townships must be filed in the office of the special deputy clerk located in Swanton.<sup>9</sup>

Criminal prosecutions

Under current law, with certain exceptions, the village solicitor, city director of law, or similar chief legal officer for each municipal corporation within the territory of a municipal court of the municipal corporation in which a municipal court is located must prosecute all criminal cases brought before the court arising in the unincorporated areas within the territory of the municipal court.<sup>10</sup> Some of the exceptions require the Carroll County, Crawford County, Hamilton County, Madison County, and Wayne County prosecuting attorneys and, beginning January 1, 2008, the Erie County prosecuting attorney, to prosecute all violations of state law arising within the unincorporated areas of their respective counties.<sup>11</sup> The bill expands these exceptions by requiring the Fulton County prosecuting attorney, beginning January 1, 2024, to prosecute all violations of state law arising within the unincorporated areas of Fulton County.<sup>12</sup>
