Outdated provisions

In addition to the above changes, the bill also updates statutory provisions relating to assistance dogs, braille teacher standards, the Children with Medical Handicaps Program, the former Ohio Commission for the Blind, and accessible parking spaces. These changes are described in more detail below.

Assistance animals

The bill eliminates references to “Ohio Guide Dog Permanent Registrations” and “Ohio Hearing Dog Permanent Registrations” that were issued prior to 1984 and references to “Ohio Handicap Assistance Dog Permanent Registrations” that were issued between 1984 and 2004.⁷⁶

Braille teachers

Ohio law currently requires that standards for braille teachers be consistent with standards adopted for teachers by the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped of the Library of Congress. The bill updates the name of the organization to the contemporary name National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled of the Library of Congress (NLS). Additionally, the NLS no longer issues standards for braille teachers, and the bill corrects this so that braille teacher standards in Ohio are created in reference to those adopted by the NLS for braille transcribers.⁷⁷

⁷⁷ R.C. 3319.232; National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled of the Library of Congress, Braille Transcription and Proofreading Services, available here; National Federation of the Blind, Braille Certification, available here.

Children with Medical Handicaps Program

The bill changes references to the Bureau for Children with Medical Handicaps to the name currently in use, the Children with Medical Handicaps Program.⁷⁸

Ohio Commission for the Blind

Ohio law currently contains references to the Ohio Commission for the Blind, an organization that no longer exists. The bill changes these references to the Bureau of Services for the Visually Impaired, a contemporary successor organization serving a similar function.⁷⁹

Accessible parking

The bill removes language clarifying that accessible parking locations are “also known as handicapped parking spaces or disability parking spaces.”⁸⁰ Current law specifies that any sign indicating an accessible parking space must not use forms of the words “handicapped” or “disabled.”⁸¹

Designation

The bill is designated as the “Mental Health and Disability Terminology Act.”
