Potency
Limits tetrahydrocannabinol (THC) levels for adult-use and medical marijuana to 35% for plant material and 70% for extracts. Allows DCC to adopt rules allowing higher THC content in medical marijuana and adult-use marijuana products intended for consumption by vaporization (R.C. 3796.06(E) and (F)).	Retains the THC limits from the As Passed by the Senate version but allows DMC to adopt rules increasing or eliminating those limits for any adult-use or medical marijuana product (R.C. 3796.06(E)).	Similar to I_136_1413-3 but allows DMC to increase the THC limits for extracts only and does not allow DMC to fully eliminate THC limits (R.C. 3796.06(E)(3)(a)).	Same as the As Reported version.
Allows DCC to adopt rules establishing THC limits as a percentage of weight, content per unit, or content per package (R.C. 3796.06(F)(2)).	No provision.	Similar to the As Passed by the Senate version but without the authority to establish THC limits as a percentage of weight (R.C. 3796.06(E)(3)(b)).	Same as the As Reported version.
Limits the THC content of adult-use marijuana products other than those intended for consumption by vaporization or combustion to 10 milligrams (mg) per serving and 100 mg per package (R.C. 3796.06(E)(3)).	No provision.	No provision.	Same as the As Reported version.

Previous Version (As Passed by the Senate)	Previous Version (I_136_1413-3)	Previous Version (As Reported by House Judiciary)	Latest Version (As Reported by House Finance)
Testing
Requires DCC to specify when testing of medical and adult-use marijuana must occur (R.C. 3796.05(C)).	Prohibits DMC from requiring testing more than once and requires the testing to occur prior to the product being sold to a licensed dispensary (R.C. 3796.05(C)(1)).	Same as the As Passed by the Senate version (R.C. 3796.05(D)).	Same as the As Reported version.
Home grow
Allows six plants per person and six plants per household, regardless of the number of adult-use consumers who reside there (R.C. 3796.04(A)(1)).	Restores current law allowing six plants per person and 12 plants per household (R.C. 3796.04(A)(1)).	Same as I_136_1413-3 (R.C. 3796.04(A)(1)).	Same as the As Reported version.
Specifies that a person who grows more than the allowable number of plants is guilty of possession of marijuana (R.C. 3796.04(A)(1) and 3796.99(D)).	Applies the same criminal penalty as the As Passed by the Senate version, but only if the adult-use consumer knowingly grows more than double the legal number of plants (R.C. 3796.04(E) and (F) and 3796.99(D)).	Specifies that a person who knowingly grows more than the allowable number of plants is guilty of illegal cultivation of marijuana (R.C. 3796.04(C) and 3796.99(E)).	Same as the As Reported version.
No provision.	Prohibits home grow at a halfway house, community transitional housing facility, community residential center, or other similar facility licensed by the Division of Parole and Community Services (DPCS) (R.C. 3796.04(A)(1)(d)(ii)).	Same as I_136_1413-3 (R.C. 3796.04(A)(1)(d)(ii)).	Same as the As Reported version.

Universal marijuana work permit
Requires persons seeking employment with a license holder to complete a criminal records check and requires DCC to adopt rules specifying which offenses render an applicant ineligible for such employment (R.C. 3796.03(B)(14) and 3796.13).	Similar to the As Passed by the Senate version but defines the “disqualifying offenses” in statute rather than rule (R.C. 3796.01(A)(20) and 3796.13).	Same as I_136_1413-3 (R.C. 3796.01(A)(20) and 3796.13).	Same as the As Reported version.
No provision.	Requires DMC to establish a universal marijuana work permit program and specifies that a permit holder is authorized to work for any license holder (R.C. 3796.03(B)(16) and 3796.13).	No provision.	Same as the As Reported version.
No provision.	Allows DMC to issue provisional universal marijuana work permits to those applicants whose criminal records checks are pending. (R.C. 3796.13(D) .)	Allows DMC to establish standards for provisional employment of individuals who have exigent circumstances. (R.C. 3796.13(B)(1)).	Same as the As Reported version.
No provision.	Specifies that provisional permits are valid for three months but may be renewed for one additional three-month period (R.C. 3796.13(D)).	Similar to I_136_1413-3 but without the renewal period (R.C. 3796.13(B)(3)).	Same as the As Reported version.

Previous Version (As Passed by the Senate)	Previous Version (I_136_1413-3)	Previous Version (As Reported by House Judiciary)	Latest Version (As Reported by House Finance)
No provision.	Requires universal marijuana work permit holders to notify DMC of each license holder with, and each location where, the permit holder is employed (R.C. 3796.13(G)) .	No provision.	Same as the As Reported version.
No provision.	Requires holders of a universal marijuana work permit or a provisional universal marijuana work permit to be at least 21 years of age (R.C. 3796.13(C)(2)) .	No provision.	Same as the As Reported version.
Intoxicating hemp products and drinkable cannabinoid products – regulatory framework
No provision.	Provides for the regulation by the Department of Commerce of general intoxicating hemp products and for drinkable cannabinoid products (DCPs). (R.C. Chapter 3779.)	Provides for the regulation of intoxicating hemp products and DCPs, but does so under the following scheme: 1. Specifies that the Division of Marijuana Control in the Department of Commerce is responsible for the regulation of intoxicating hemp products; 2. Specifies that the Division of Liquor Control in the	Same as the As Reported version.
