BILL SUMMARY

- Adds two judges to the Domestic Relations Division of the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas to be elected in 2018.

CONTENT AND OPERATION

Judges of Franklin County Court of Common Pleas, Domestic Relations Division

The bill adds two judges to current law's five judges of the Division of Domestic Relations of the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas. The added two judges are to be elected in 2018, terms to begin January 9, 2019, and January 10, 2019, respectively.¹ They are to be elected and designated as judges of the Division of Domestic Relations of the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas, with all the powers relating to juvenile courts, and all cases under the juvenile court and child delinquency laws, all parentage proceedings over which the juvenile court has jurisdiction, and all divorce, dissolution of marriage, legal separation, and annulment cases.² The two judges are in addition to the current twenty-two judges of the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas.³
